LEGAL TENDER NOTES REDEEMED. An Apparent Excess of Over $54,000 More Than the Issue.

United States Treasurer Nebeker has reported to Secretary Charles Foster that the account of the legal tender notes of the denomination of $500, series of 1874, shows, as it stands, an ex- Special Dispatch to The Evening Star cess of $54,000 redeemed over the issue. counterfeit of the $500 legal tender note which the treasury was then issuing, known as the series of 1869. For the protection of the public the issue of the genuine was stopped and a new plate engraved, from which, in the course of about a year, $28,000,000 were printed. On the 1st of July, 1875, Gen. Spinner retired from the treasurership and John C. New succeeded him. The change occurred with a few days of the time when the last of the new notes were paid out. A fresh supply the new notes were paid out. A fresh supply being needed, the plate was altered by changing a small and indistinct figure four to a five, by substituting the signature of the incoming treasurer for that of the outgoing and by transposing the signatures of the treasurer and register in position. Different characters were also placed before and after the numbers. During the year in which Mr. New Come, Col., on the Denver held the office $28,400,000 of notes were printed vision of the Union Pacific. from this altered plate and the whole amount was issued from the treasury within a few years. Since then two more series, known as those of 1878 and 1880, the last of which is still running, have been printed from the same plates with only minor modifications. RAPIDLY PAID.

The needs of the treasury in 1874 and 1875 were at work.
